INSTRUCTIONS

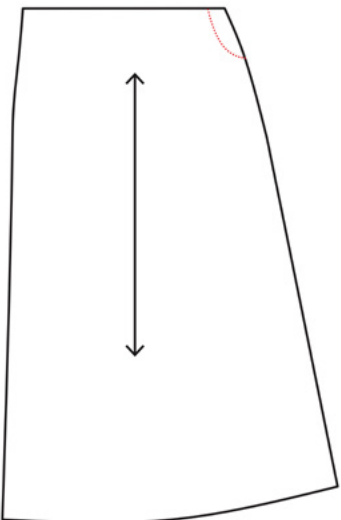

YOU WILL NEED:

- Ginger Skirt by Colette Patterns
- Large paper for tracing
- Pencil or pen
- Ruler
- French curve

SUBSECTION

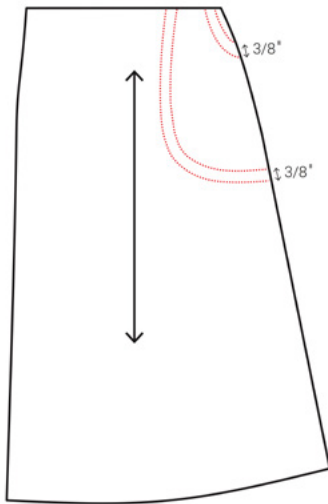

1. Trace front skirt pattern onto pattern paper. Transfer grainline, but do not cut.

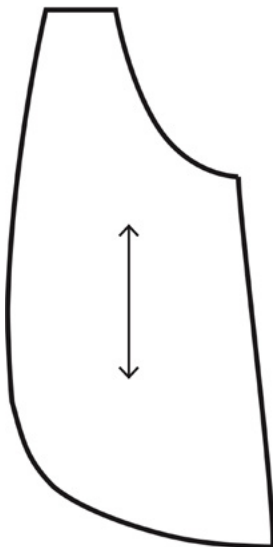

2. Draw pocket opening using french curve. This can be as subtle or severe as you like, but it should accommodate the width of your hand.

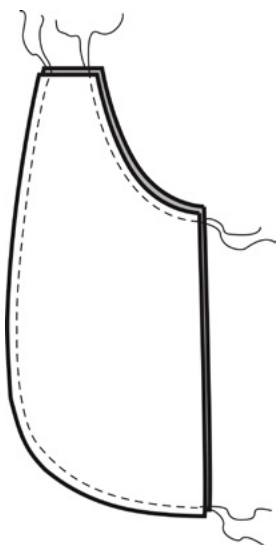

3. Draw the pocket bag. The width should be approximately half the width of the pattern piece.

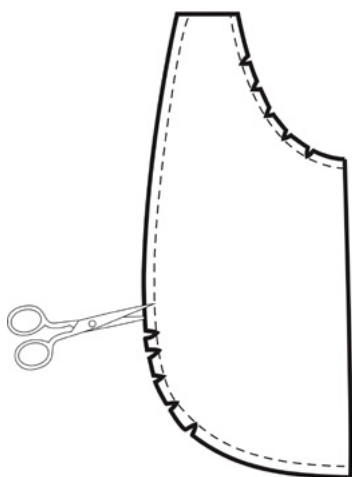

4. Add $\frac{3}{8}$ " SA to the two curves and transfer grainline markings to pocket.

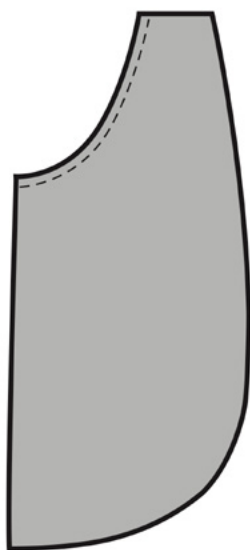

5. Cut Pocket. Cut your fashion fabric per the pattern instructions, plus 4 pockets.

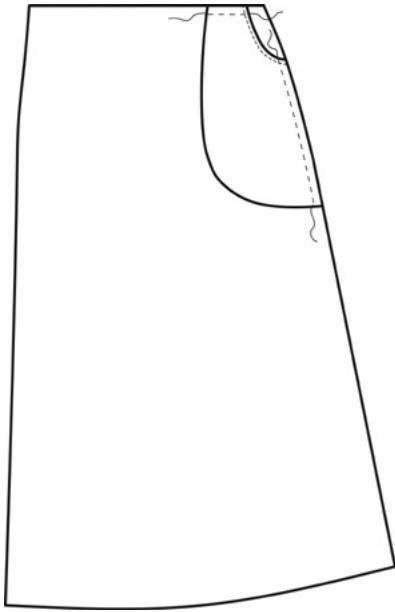

6. With right sides together, stitch 2 pocket pieces together along curved edges at $\frac{3}{8}$ ".

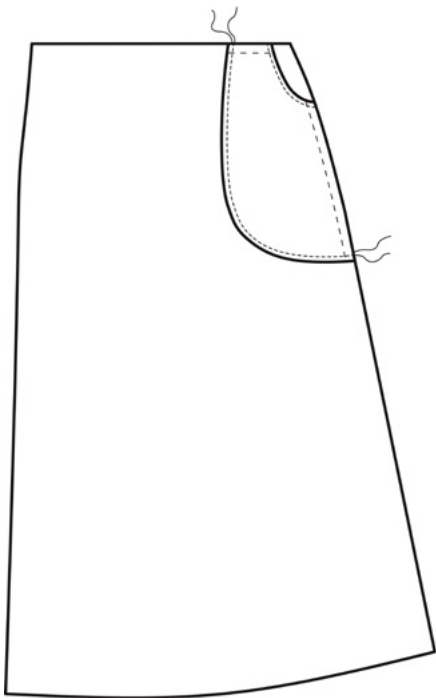

7. Clip and notch curved edges.

8. Turn pocket right side out. Press. Topstitch the upper pocket curve at $\frac{1}{4}$ ".

9. Place pocket on skirt, aligning the top of the pocket with the waist and the side of the pocket with the side seam. Baste these two edges of the pocket to the skirt.

10. Topstitch the lower pocket curve at $\frac{1}{4}$ ". Finish sewing the skirt per the pattern instructions.
